WESTERN FERTILITY

GREATLY IMPRESSED THE PREMIER.

The Saskatchewan and Red River Valleys the Great Productive Area of the Dominion.

Ottawa, Sept. 14.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier was a guest at a luncheon of the directors of the Canada Central Fair today. In reply to the toast of his health he said that he had thought he had seen the most fertile parts of Canada, but one had to see the Valley of the Saskatchewan and Red River with miles upon miles of wheat growing to the extent of forty bushels an acre, otherwise no real conception could be formed of the fertility of the soil of the West. Upon seeing these we must come to the conclusion that Canada was the best heritage God gave to Man.

HON. JOSEPH MARTIN SPEAKS.

Winnipeg, Sept. 15.—Jos. Martin, K. C., formerly Manitoba's public school champion, addressed a crowded meeting last night at Selkirk Hall and strongly urged the formation of a third party. The attendance was representative one, and among those present were Hon. R. P. Roblin, Hon. C. E. Campbell, R. L. Richardson, E. D. Martin and J. H. Harry. The principal planks in his proposed platform were public ownership, provincial rights and education and, as an afterthought the abolition of the Senate.

THE ALL-CANADIAN ROUTE

A letter of considerable interest, from the far north, received by Tom Marks, the comedian, from his friend Sgt. Spalding, of the North West Mounted Police was published recently in the Perth Courier. Spalding and Marks both being old boys of Perth.

The sergeant is one of the party sent out to open up a trail from Fort St. John's to Teslin Lake, practically an all-Canadian route to the Yukon. "We left Fort Saskatchewan," he writes, "on March 17, thirty-two men all told, and sixty head of horses, consisting of ten four-in-hand teams, eleven saddle horses, balance being dogs. We made splendid time to Athabasca Landing, where we changed wagons for sleighs and went by Athabasca river, hoping to be able to get up Little Slave river into the lake, but were disappointed. In fact making seventy miles up Athabasca was tough and go, as in some places ice was very rotten and would bend under weight of teams and sleighs. Therefore we had to make a portage of fifty-two miles across to Lesser Slave Lake, the river being open in many places. This fifty-two miles portage meant hauling our sleighs over the bear ground, up hills and down, bush all the way. We had to do considerable cutting as there was only a poor trail out the spring before by a surveyor who got caught in a similar way by the ice in Little Slave being gone. However we made the lake all right, and then two days' travel up it (eighty-five miles) brought us to the police post and fur traders' stores at its head.

Here we rested a few days and again hit out with wagons, seven in number, for Peace river crossing, getting there on April 9, where we had to wait till the grass was good enough to carry us through to St. John's. We had good luck with our horses and only lost one and that was in Peace river. The day we arrived there we attempted crossing on the ice as we had to cross the river to get the trail to St. John's on the north side. Taking the leaders of our four-in-hand we started to cross when the first team and wagon went through the ice and although we got them out one died.

We then came on the south side near where the Hudson's Bay Co. and Bredin, Cornwall and Roberts' stores are and the police detachment. There has been a sergeant of our force stationed there for the last seven years and he now talks Cree like a native.

POLITICAL

J. Komlitz is the Conservative candidate in Pincher Creek.

PRINCE ALBERT CONSERVATIVE Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 15.—Wm. Cowan was unanimously chosen Conservative candidate for the city of Prince Albert.

IVES WILL OPPOSE DEVERER Lethbridge, Sept. 13.—Harrister Ives has been selected to oppose Dr. Deverer. R. B. Bennett attended the meeting and spoke on the autonomy bill.

MOTHERWELL IS POPULAR

Indian Head, Sask., Sept. 11.—The meeting of the so-called "provincial righters" was held here this afternoon. A motion pledging the delegates to support Mr. Hamilton aroused some controversy, and narrowly escaped defeat. It was carried by a majority of four. The delegates were not by any means enthusiastic over Hamilton. Many are a little suspicious as to the motives of the bunch that now proclaim themselves provincial righters.

Mr. F. L. Mackay, who was chairman in 1896, went out on the stump in favor of the Manitoba Remedial bill, and all the twelve delegates to a man used their influence and worked for the remedial candidate. The delegates appointed are: W. R. Boyd, F. L. Mackay, S. B. Edwards, A. Davidson, G. A. Davidson, M. S. Hamilton, Geo. Thompson, A. W. Sherwood, J. Swift, J. McArthur, J. A. McCaul and A. M. McLane.

All here are pleased at the appointment of W. R. Motherwell as minister of agriculture in Walter Scott's cabinet. The appointment is a well-deserved tribute to Mr. Motherwell's industry and ability in championing the cause of the grain growers. All prospective M. P.'s, are tendering their congratulations.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC CONVENTION.

Charles A. Stuart was last night selected by the Liberals of Gleichen as a candidate for the riding of Gleichen in the approaching election. The convention was held in Alexander Hall and was a very successful one. It was very well attended, there being 61 ballots cast for the candidate. Dr. Rouleau presided at the meeting. Mr. Hallman, of Aldridge, acted as secretary. The meeting was properly organized and a committee consisting of F. McLeod, Dr. Bishop and Mr. Church, acting as a credential committee, reported upon the delegates who were entitled to vote. Their task was not a difficult one. Full contingents of delegates were present from Gleichen, Sheppard, Aldridge, Crossfield and other parts of the riding.

When nominations were called, the following were placed in nomination: Mr. McGregor, of Bow River, by Mr. McMillan, of Gleichen; Col. James Walker, of Calgary, by J. Bradley; John A. Turner of Fish Creek, by Mr. Hallman, of Aldridge; Chas. A. Stuart, of Calgary, by Mr. Henry of Sprucevale.

The candidates were given a short time to address the meeting and all were received with enthusiasm. The scrutineers on counting the first ballot found the votes to be as follows:

Charles A. Stuart	37
Mr. McGregor	14
Col. Walker	6
John A. Turner	4

As Mr. Stuart received the majority of the ballots cast, he was declared elected and the choice was made unanimous amid much enthusiasm.

SHOOTING ACCIDENT

BEFALLS YOUNG SPORTSMAN

John Singer of Spruce Grove Had an Arm Shattered by a Shot Gun

John Singer, of Spruce Grove, happened with a serious accident yesterday by which he lost his right arm. He had been out shooting and in removing his loaded gun from the rig pulled it toward him by the barrel when it was accidentally discharged giving him the full force of the charge in the right arm below the elbow.

His arm was literally blown to pieces, the bones being shattered into about twenty-five pieces. Dr. Roy amputated the injured arm above the elbow and the patient is now resting easily at the general hospital. Mr. Singer is just twenty-one years of age and was married four weeks ago.

RAILWAY PROGRESS

McArthur's outfit Number 5, in charge of Andrew Paul finished his work on the C.N.R. grading east of the city and left this morning for the Wetaskiwin branch of the C.N.R. Wilson's outfit has also finished his work east of the city and has gone out on the Morinville branch of the C.N.R.

There are only two outfits working now between Fort Saskatchewan and Edmonton and their work will be completed very shortly. The grade is completed up to the station grounds and work is being done in the station yard today. The work to connect with the E. Y. & P. is fairly alive with teams and men finishing up that branch which will be completed early next week.

The ties for the spur connecting the two stations are arriving daily. Two car loads came in this morning. The steel is expected in next week and a track-laying gang will be organized here by Mr. Pace and the work of completing the connection between the two stations will be done at once.

The foundation for the new C. N. R. station is completed, the joists are all laid on the wall and part of the walls of the building are already up.

THE TARIFF COMMISSION.

The tariff commission appointed by the Federal Government are now touring the West holding sessions wherever requested by a representative body. The purpose of the commission is to secure the views of all classes and sections of the Canadian people on the existing tariff that this may be adjusted as occasion may require in accordance with the generally prevailing opinions and the broader interests of the country.

READ ME THIS RIDDLE

(Toronto Star)

The West seeth one approaching with rue leaves in his hair. He hath a suit of sackcloth with ashes in the pockets. He openeth not his mouth save to engulf himself in pessimism. His voice crieth in the wilderness, "Woe is Jerusalem that scorneth the prophets."

Who is this that darkeneth the landscape and putteth a crimp in the wheat belt? Whose Veltchick glances south the gopher scurrying to his hole and maketh the prairie chicken chicken-hearted? Whose frown blighteth the wild flowers and rusheth the winter season a full month? Who mourneth like the whang doo-dle? Who goeth about looking like half past six, saying the while, "Your goose is cooked. Let me tell you all about it."

The acclan harp of the wind speaks naught but sadness. The willows and jackpines bow their heads. Birds twitter. Cattle low. Dogs bristle. The thunder growls. From beyond the horizon comes a noise as of funeral drums. No day but has its red-eyed sun, weeping over calamities that are to be. No night but has its wan moon, riding low in a sky heavy with unshed tears. The Doukhobor pricks up his ears awaiting the last trump. The Indian feels that the Great Spirit is angry. The deadly chill spreads and spreads and spreads. From Winnipeg to Calgary, thence north to Edmonton and back again, there is not a hotel where the soup will keep warm. The spine of the West creaks. The arteries of traffic are congested. Some hurffle influence is abroad.

Ever and anon a high-pitched shrill voice, gauged at two hundred words a minute, is heard, "All blue! No hope! Too late! Hollow liberty! Doomed vessels of a grasping plutocracy! Fettered provinces! Scheming hierarchy! Public ownership—public utility!" Then it trails off into silence broken only by the thump, thump, thump of the hearts that have jumped into a thousand mouths at these fearful words.

Who is it that seeks to poison the festal joy of the West, cooing Nature to his furies and dead marchers? Who is it that sizes up the future at thirty cents and dear at that? You have one guess.

MR. MACLEAN HIS SHOW AND HIS CRITIC

One William Finlay Maclean was also present at the inauguration ceremonies at Edmonton and Regina. The demonstrations in these cities not being on the light comedy order, Mr. Maclean was not included on the list of speakers. He consoled himself however by gathering a bunch of Californians in the opera house where he gave a one night performance with himself as stage manager, director of ceremonies, door-keeper, acrobat and wire walker, the part of the "large and well served supporting company" being also occupied by his modest self.

Probably the most interesting number contributed by this single handed company was Mr. Maclean's explanation that he had supported the salary increase because he thought the Western members needed the money. The only remark Mr. Maclean contributed to the subject in the House was the typical query as to whether the granting of a salary to Mr. Harden would interfere with the power of the Governor-General to pass over Mr. Harden and select some one else as premier in case the present administration went to the wall. Assured that his own dim chances were not extinguished by the vote Mr. Maclean had no further opposition or explanation to offer. His revised version of the story in Calgary is not lacking in interest.

As a further contribution to the entertainment Mr. Maclean informed his hearers that the press of the West was under the domination of the corporations. This from "Billy" Maclean of the Toronto World was the star joke of the evening.

Of course the Herald which has never seen a joke save what humor lurks in its own slurs at Edmonton got angry and went after Mr. Maclean with his proverbial "sharp stick." It is not often that the Bulletin compliments the Herald but in this case it appears to have made a pretty fair defense, considering the bad case it had.

The net result of the episode was to make plain:

- 1.—That the Herald will not accept Mr. Maclean as the chosen prophet, who is to lead the wandering exiles back to power.
- 2.—That the Herald is very touchy on the question of "corporation connections."

The All Canadian Route

The point where you strike Peace river crossing is very pretty. As you come in sight of the river you are on the high hills which line both its banks some 700 or 800 feet high. This means a trail of about a mile and a half long to get down to the flats where the stores and police detachment are, but we had no trouble in getting down as there is a good wagon road from Lesser Slave Lake to the crossing over which all the freight for this port is brought and distributed from crossing up and down the Peace by steamer. The R.C. mission have for the last three years had a boat on the river for this purpose. This season, however, the Hudson's Bay Co. have put on a new steamer for their own use.

About May 10 things began to look very much like spring. The ice in the river broke up on April 19, and by May 24 we had all our outfit across the river, and the day following started for St. John's with our four-hand teams and a wagon and twelve pack ponies.

We scarcely knew what was ahead of us as the information we got from Indians and half-breeds conflicted somewhat; but, however, the trail as far as Dunvegan was splendid, although for the greater part of the way wagons had not travelled. It was hard, still the country was open and about as fine a stretch as I've seen anywhere in the Territories although there might be too much scrub to suit some. Still, at least, it could not be surpassed for ranching.

The vegetation is something wonderful. The grass and trees of all kinds seemed to burst themselves. From Dunvegan on to St. John's or trail was uneven and in some places heavy brush, mostly poplar and spruce, and some of the trees were of such a size that they would be of much commercial value as lumber. It would be very useful to an active settler though for building purposes.

On May 20 we arrived at a place which at this point we expressed. It is eight miles from St. John's. Here we spent a day and a half getting down our outfit and up the opposite side; and are the first party to take wagons across it into St. John's, although some of the Klondikers who came up this way brought their carts over. But they also left quite a few along the trail, as we passed several. At the bottom of the hill along the river we saw many remains of these carts which had been let go down the hill by the Indians. It seems that some of the Klondikers had stolen some of the Indians' ponies. To get even the red men came along in the night and ran their carts over the top of the hill, leaving them so as they pleased to the bottom, with the result that nearly all of them were smashed to pieces, as the hill is about 600 feet high and very steep.

I might add that eighteen of our party have gone ahead from here on the work of cutting out and making a pack trail to Fort Graham route to Tooshie Lake. I am of the opinion that there will be very little difficulty met with by the party, as already there is an Indian pack trail from here to that place. Only we in cutting out a trail have to choose a route that would be suitable for a wagon trail if necessary to make it later on. When Graham is reached the party are to return here for the winter, where at present I am getting buildings put up for their use. Supt. Constantine is here in command and Supt. Richards is in charge of the trail gang.

The Cream Separator that is the Cheapest in the End.

There are some folks who are everlastingly trying to get "something for nothing." They buy a wagon at a "bargain" price because the agent says it's "just as good." And then, after a few months, when the tires and spokes have all loosened up, they crash the wagon.

Price not the only Difference.

It's the same way with cream separators. You can buy many other separators for less money than the U. S. Cream Separator sells for, but before you're finished paying for the experiment you'll find price isn't the only difference. The cheaper separators soon get out of adjustment because built of cheaper material by inferior manufacturing methods; they consume twice the necessary amount of oil; they have a bowl that will not run true, and does not skim clean. The repairs in the first few years would pay the difference for the U. S. Cream Separator.

Durability is Important.

The U. S. Cream Separator has stood the test of time. Many of them have been in use for 10 years, and cost less than a dollar for repairs. They run easy, skim cleaner than others, have a simple bowl, cushioned gears, and a convenient low supply can.

The Vermont Farm Machine Co., of Bellows Falls, Vt., have printed in a handsome booklet a few of the thousands of letters from satisfied users of the U. S. Cream Separator.

This booklet will save you money when you buy a separator, and a post card will bring it to you.

To insure prompt deliveries and to save freight charges for their Canadian customers, they ship from their warehouses at Montreal, Sherbrooke, Hamilton, Winnipeg, Calgary and Vancouver, but all letters should be addressed to Bellows Falls, Vt.

C. P. R. GETS BUSY

Free Press: The contract for an additional 100 miles of the Wetaskiwin branch of the C.P.R. and for 100 miles east and west from Saskatoon, have been awarded to J. D. McArthur, who will begin work as soon as the necessary materials can be shipped to the different sites.

At the present time these lines are nothing but feeders, tapping rich agricultural country which is rapidly being opened up. But at the same time these branches will ultimately form a part of one huge through line. It was suggested that the line which is to be built east from Saskatoon would connect with the Kirkella branch, which has recently been completed to Strasburg in the Last Mountain district. This, however, does not seem to be the correct deduction, for from the plans it would seem as if it were intended to connect with the Shebo branch which runs farther to the north and which would give practically a direct line from Portage to Saskatoon.

As there is little doubt but that the Wetaskiwin branch will connect with the line to be built west from Saskatoon, the completion of the through connection would give almost a direct route from Winnipeg to Edmonton. There would necessarily be but a slight diversion of the line to run direct to Edmonton, which would shorten the route considerably from the present 1,042 miles. This route would tap an entirely new country which is remarkably rich and productive.

The Gillette Razor

To men who are accustomed to shave themselves, we would recommend the little ever-ready Gillette Razor. While this is one of what is generally called

Safety Razors

It is entirely different from the ordinary Safety, for with the Gillette you have no honing or stropping to do, as the Razor is always ready for use. The blade that is in the Razor when you buy it, is good for not less than ten shaves, and to a man who has an ordinary delicate, or fine beard it will shave thirty times without stropping; then you simply remove that blade and put in a new one, or in other words, throw the old blade away, not facing to renew its edge, but put in a new blade, thus you start again with a new Razor. Twelve blades go with each Razor, and these twelve blades are good for not less than 120 shaves without stropping. The Razor is always ready. Then when the blades become dull, and you throw them away, you buy a new set of blades for $1.00, which means again not less than 120 shaves. No matter if you are on the road or in a jolting conveyance of any kind, the Razor is always ready for use. You cannot cut yourself if you try.

We are the only people in this northern country who have these Razors, and as we have seen them work and know their capabilities we can recommend them without the slightest hesitation.

ALBERTA'S LIVELY CELEBRATION

(Monetary Times)

You may read about the West in newspapers and magazines; you may have friends there only too willing to tell you all about it; you may have formed in your own mind the broadest, highest notions of its marvellous expansion and still more marvellous possibilities; and all will be of no avail unless you actually see the country for yourself with your own physical eyes.

Reading about it is of little use; Government reports even are tame; you have to pass through the land and see what is there and appraise it, and listen to the voice of its own people in their own territory; and, having done this, you are not much further advanced; you are simply staggered by the immensity of the problem which a rational judgment of its present and future is called upon to fill.

The latter position is mine. I have seen a little portion of the great Canadian North-West; that is to say, I have skimmed over a small fraction of it—and I am still trying, not very effectively, to collect my thoughts and put them into such shape that they will present to a distant reader some slight notion of the general conditions without allowing him to suspect for the shortest moment any degree of finality, either in the potentialities touched on or in the judgment formed thereon.

When a person from the East has reached that remarkable place, Winnipeg, and the prairie country, with its miles and miles of golden wheat, he already begins to think Canada a pretty big proposition; when, however, he has left that far behind, and, travelling through thousands of square miles, finds the country even fuller of promise for the future than ever, he is not only sure of it, but begins to see that what is really called for is the work of the descriptive specialist rather than a general summary of detailed conditions which, properly done, would fill several numbers of the Monetary Times. And he is very apt to decide to seize a "better opportunity" and postpone the heavy task of forcing his own somewhat disordered impressions into tangible shape till—till they become even more disordered by a new aggregation of even more numerous impressions. To come to the gist of this first letter however. When, as I say, the raw Easterner reaches Calgary, for example, he has generally come to the conclusion that he has already seen "quite a little bit" of the West, and usually he is quite ready to allow matters to stand at that for awhile, so as to allow impressions to "soak in." He is hardly prepared to be told that this is but the beginning, that away up north from the Rocky foothills and beyond the cattle-dotted vastness of those seemingly limitless prairies, there is a stretch of land which for richness of soil, varied opportunities for successful farming, and civic progress already made—I mean by this the actual forming, organization and building up of towns and villages—is hard to duplicate on this continent. It creates a lingering astonishment in the mind of the new beholder.

Edmonton district is the country to which I refer, and nobody who had the good fortune to be present last Friday at the inaugural celebration of the new province of Alberta will hesitate to admit that this brief snapshot of what he and I and all of us saw on our trip to that region falls short of the reality.

The whole of the new province of Alberta has been this week in the throes of glorification at the great ceremony of autonomization, if I may coin such a word; but naturally, Edmonton as the probable capital was the spot at which the joyful celebration reached its culminating point. To say that Edmonton did its part royally is but a half-sufficing tribute.

Imagine a city—small now only in size, and not very small even in that—notably situated on beautiful wooded hills overlooking a natural amphitheatre, which appears to have been planned from the absolute beginning of things for the playground of a great metropolis. Imagine that young city to have been laid out with sufficient forethought to have wide streets, fine brick buildings, and with sufficient recognition of the comforts of the present to have extensive granolithic walks, good electric lighting, telephone, and motor services, etc. Imagine, too, the streets of that city swarming with the crowds of its own citizens on holiday bent, but with multitudes on multitudes of out-of-town visitors, all destined—and meaning—to have the Greatest time of their lives. On top of all this picture to yourself an enveloping mass of hurrying which for color-effects and joyful significance would quite easily have put Toronto's Jubilee celebration in the shade—I mean proportionately of course—and you may perhaps glean some faint idea of what Edmonton looked like last Friday.

But even this by no means tells the whole story. The real celebration was not in the decorations or the music, or the speeches, though some fine ones were delivered by the Governor-General, by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Hon. Mr. Paterson, by Mayor MacKenzie and others, but in the attitude of those far North-Western brothers of ours. Sir Wilfrid may be ever so sure of the great future of this part of the great Canadian federation, and so may His Excellency, but the real surety of that future lies in the irresistible determination of the people of Edmonton to make that future.

The way they celebrated is only one indication of the spirit in which the people of Edmonton district undertake to carry through any object that appeals to them. The celebration had to be well done; and it was well done—to every most minute detail it was a wonderful success.

But, as I have said, it is only as an indication of the spirit of the West that needs to speak of the inaugural ceremonies themselves. They were an unqualified success in every way, and visitors were greeted with a hospitality that they will remember for the rest of their days. What interested me even more than the jubilation was the country—surrounding Edmonton, and this, through the courtesy of Mr. Fisher, the energetic secretary of its board of trade, I had an unsurpassed opportunity of seeing to advantage today.

The splendid strength of the city of the far North-West, the remarkably fine exhibits to be seen in its magnificent stores are only in keeping with the country which contributes its riches for the upbuilding of its commerce. I drove through miles and miles of land which, for soil and climate and general appearance, for fertility of make-up and beauty of outline, beat anything I have seen so far in all my experience. Beautiful rolling slopes of deep, black soil, climate superior in many respects to that of Ontario—prairie easy to clear and easier to work; this on an area of thousands of square miles—what must they mean to Edmonton and its people.

With the development of the north the police have been spreading out east and west, west through the Yukon and east through the Hudson's Bay country.

—The Great Northern Railway company has decided to meet the Canadian Pacific lumber rate now in effect from British Columbia to Manitoba ports. This means a reduction of six cents per 100 pounds and will affect shipments from Tacoma and all Pacific coast points to all stations on the old lines of the Northern Pacific in Manitoba. The present Great Northern rate on fire, for instance, from Tacoma to Brandon is 46 cents, while the new rate will be forty cents. The rate on shingles is 58 1-2 cents under the existing tariff, but will be an even 50 cents under the new ruling.

—Medicine Hat Times: A heavy flow of natural gas has been struck in the new deep level well which Mr. J. A. Grant has drilled under his contract with the town council. The big flow was struck at a depth slightly less than the thousand feet level and this well promises to give a larger yield than the other deep wells. This well now gives the town a big reserve of gas. This new well is 965 feet deep, not so deep as the other one by about 40 feet. Mr. Porter tested the pressure and found it showed 560 pounds. The 450 pound mark was reached in 8 minutes. This is higher than the present well.

—Albertan: The local typographical union, along with all the members of the American and Canadian Typographical unions, is affected by the decision to make an eight-hour day in all the shops in North America. Yesterday they sent word to the employing printers in the city asking for an eight-hour day to begin on November 1, when the present agreement expires. At present printers work from 48 to 51 hours a week. The night men work 48 hours, day men working 51 hours. The proposed scale is 45 hours a week for night men who work on a morning paper, and 48 hours for all others.

—Winnipeg Telegram: John Tryfinski, a Galician in the employ of the C.P.R. as a section man, and who lives at 118 Pritchard street, tried his best last night to end his life. John had been drinking with his boon companions at the Dufferin hotel and while walking along Flora street suddenly became possessed with a desire to show how much Dutch courage could do for a man. He took his pocket knife out and plunged it into his neck and inflicted a terrible cut in his neck, starting about one inch below the left side of the jaw and going downwards about four inches. The man then walked to his lodgings at the corner of Pritchard and Salter streets, where he fell in a heap on the doorstep.

—Herald: The board of trade yesterday discussed the subject of insurance rates at the afternoon meeting. A resolution was adopted instructing the secretary to write the Board of Underwriters and secure a definite statement of the situation. The agitation in favor of modifying rates in Calgary has been under way among the merchants for some time. Some four or five months ago the secretary of the Calgary board of trade received information to the effect that the city was to be resurveyed by the insurance board with a view of regulating rates more equitably. This promise did not carry with it definite ideas of decreased rates, but some of the merchants thought that was what it meant. No resurvey was ever made. Now comes the intimation that an increase, rather than a decrease, may be expected, though the reasons for this policy are not specifically stated. There is an impression, however, that the Board of Underwriters is dissatisfied with the equipment of the local department, which, by the way is generally declared to be very superior to cities of similar size all over the country.
